

CONNOR BLAKLEY

Connor Speaks

Some call him the Drake of entrepreneurs.
(Musical performance sold separately.)

Allow Connor to take the stage and captivate you with his charismatic charm and keen business insight. As a highly sought after speaker, Connor has been hosted by a variety of high schools, universities, conferences and companies. Although he speaks on a variety of topics, his favorites include entrepreneurship, youth marketing + branding, and social media.

Connor's uniquely interactive speaking sessions are extremely dynamic and fun. Typically speaking for no more than 20-30 minutes, the majority of time is dedicated to in-depth Question + Answer. But don't let that scare you. Connor never has issues occupying the allotted time given. In fact, the audience typically comes packing more questions than Connor has time to answer!
